

LUTHERANS AND CATHOLICS ON THE WAY IN SOUTHWESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

An Evening of Repentance

Tuesday, March 14, 2017, 7:00 PM

St. John the Baptist Byzantine Catholic Cathedral
210 Greentree Road, Munhall, Pennsylvania

In 2017, Lutherans and Catholics world-wide are commemorating the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation and are looking forward together in hope.

All are welcome to this Evening of Repentance as we join together with our bishops in prayer and fellowship:

- ◆ Evening Prayer—Moleben to the Precious and Life-Giving Cross
Archbishop William Skurla, Celebrant
Metropolitan Archeparchy of Pittsburgh
Bishop Kurt Kusserow, Homilist
Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod Evangelical
Lutheran Church in America
Bishop Edward Malesic
Roman Catholic Diocese of Greensburg
Bishop David Zubik
Roman Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh
- ◆ Blessing of commemorative crosses to be distributed to all participants
- ◆ Meager Lenten Meal of soup and bread

No reservations required.
Free and open to the public.

Sponsored by the Catholic-Lutheran
Planning Group of Southwestern PA
